

Friday digest

January 20, 2012

Subscribe by RSS feed: magazine, blogs, news. See all feeds.

New today from the Century:

- John Buchanan on Elizabeth Sifton and her parents (subscription required)
- David Commins reviews Stéphane Lacroix's book on religious dissent in Saudi Arabia (subscription required)
- Just how high are our taxes?
- Lou Carlozo briefly reviews the new Ray Charles DVD

In the news:

- Conservative Presbyterians launch new denomination
- U.S. church council names Chapman as interim general secretary
- Last of 3 men sentenced in church arson case
- Are Mormons Christian? It's complicated
- Pope warns U.S. bishops on threat of 'radical secularism'