Thursday digest

September 19, 2013

Subscribe by RSS feed: magazine, blogs, news. See all feeds.

New today from the Century:

- Ellen Blue's narrative about a church conflict around a toddler: "At first, Mandy was hesitant to come to the children's moment. Before long, some people thought she had become too comfortable in worship." (subscription required)
- Cynthia Lindner's response to Blue's narrative (subscription required)
- Chris Brundage on a secret Jesus knows
- A brief review of William B. Helmreich
- Debra Bendis on the Century's upcoming preaching workshop with Cleophus J. LaRue

In the news:

- Muslims name 37 groups that fuel Islamophobia
- o After Prop 8, Mormons take different tact in Hawaii gay marriage fight
- NY state pastor among Methodists defying church law
- o From burlap sack to digital file, church records get makeover