Other people saying things

By Steve Thorngate February 26, 2015

"That confusion—the inability to tell the difference between God and King Herod —explains much of Huckabee's ideology."

"When you take this reality of everyone measuring everyone else's prayer mat to ensure it is the appropriate size...and you combine it with the millenialistic/apocalyptic component, then for all its strength ISIS becomes quite weak."

"The carpenters, electricians, and construction workers were joined by the NFL Players Association, which has a small local up in Green Bay."

"I, for one, look forward to an entire generation of mularists depicting hard working, salt of the earth currency traders manipulating foreign exchange rates."

"I'm really appreciating the Christian Century's sarcasm."

"We've established that Harvey Cox and I both wrote for Christian Century AND Playboy. Anyone else in that club?"

"This isn't death: this is new life. It just looks a little different."

"The first time I didn't feel sad about feeling sad was on Sept. 17, 2013."