

NCC urges phased pullout from Iraq: Plan linked to rebuilding Iraqi society

News in the November 28, 2006 issue

One day after the November elections, the General Assembly of the National Council of Churches, holding its annual meeting in Orlando, called for “an immediate phased withdrawal of American and coalition forces from Iraq.” The withdrawal plan is linked to “benchmarks for rebuilding Iraqi society.”