Small prayer in a hard wind

by Christian Wiman in the August 26, 2008 issue

As through a long-abandoned half-standing house Only someone lost could find,

Which, with its paneless windows and sagging crossbeams, Its hundred crevices in which a hundred creatures hoard and nest,

Seems both ghost of the life that happened there And living spirit of this wasted place,

Wind seeks and sings every wound in the wood That is open enough to receive it,

Shatter me God into my thousand sounds . . .
