she said her mother was waiting could I take her there she was waiting and would worry she asked how my mother was and I said you are my mother she looked amused then she leaned over and took my arm she said does mother know where we are I said yes mom she knows she's waiting will you tell her I'll be there she said as soon as I can get to the bus I'll tell her I said she patted my arm and hummed give your mother my love she said
