The pastor's wife reports to traffic school

by Nola Garrett in the January 23, 2013 issue

We watch cars crash, bodies crush, drunks stagger, adolescents weep, until

we believe:
no matter how innocent
we think we are,
how good our intentions,
there's no re-crossing
those double
yellow lines.

No short cuts.

Ever.

Rock: clay: dust.