New today from the Century:

- Suzanne Guthrie remembers her confirmation: "On Sundays, my mother stayed home and read the paper. Yet she insisted that we kids go to church." (subscription required)
- Carol Howard Merritt compiles successful church models for a new generation:
 "I'm in a lot of conversations about why the denominational church isn't working. But what about the communities that are ministering well?"
- Christine Chakoian blogs the lectionary: "Patience is not one of my virtues, as those closest to me know. I want answers now, clarity now, unresolved issues settled now, anxiety lifted now."
- Lil Copan highlights art by Rick Beerhorst, whose sketches and paintings "create location out of dislocation, dislocation out of location."
