New today from the Century:

- Tom Long on yet another expectation placed on today's church leaders, predicting the future: "The 1939 World's Fair's vision was whipped to a froth through wishful thinking. Church leaders should probe the future with more humility."
- Miho Nonaka reviews Angela Alaimo O'Donnell, whose "sassy poems are born of her deeply Catholic imagination. She builds a house of saints, canonized or not."
- Steve Thorngate on public housing
- Ryan Dueck on why we use ellipses

In the news:
