Tuesday digest

February 19, 2013

Subscribe by RSS feed: magazine, blogs, news. See all feeds.

New today from the Century:

- The editors on immigration reform: "If the current bipartisan push leads to serious immigration reform, we'll all be the better for it. But what constitutes serious reform?"
- o Bob Francis on Ron Sider's unhelpful rhetoric about American seniors
- James Alison's lectionary column for Sunday, March 3 (subscription required)
- Martha Spong on going from being the pastor to being the pastor's wife

In the news:

- Gay marriage opponents make their case to Supreme Court
- All eyes on Texas, S.C. church property fights
- Bishop Eddie Long sued over alleged Ponzi scheme