New today from the Century:

- Philip Jenkins on William Harris: "A century ago, William Wade Harris began his march across the Ivory Coast. He proclaimed a Christ who was not the property of the master race." (subscription required)
- Suzanne Guthrie reviews Beverly Donofrio: "She had closed her laptop, having bookmarked religious communities she might write to, then had fallen into a deep sleep. During the night she was raped at knife point."
- Gerardo Marti on Hollywood's faith in religious films
- Steve Thorngate on the White House's preemptively compromised budget
