

Episode 12: Leslie Callahan

November 29, 2015

Leslie Callahan is senior pastor of Saint Paul's Baptist Church in Philadelphia. She is the first female pastor of this historic congregation.

In this episode, Leslie tells Matt about her Pentecostal background and how taking religious studies classes as a Harvard undergrad upended her assumptions. They also explore the false choice preachers set up between good news and lament.

Use the player below to listen.