

Dixie down

by Marda Messick in the April 21, 2021 issue

The gray generals topple while the confederate dead clap their bones.

Send them to the red clay smithies, beat them into pruning hooks or cart them to a monument mortuary, but spare the blameless horses.

Traveller, Little Sorrel, Highfly, Blackjack—cut the masters off their backs.
Lead them to a parkland
and give them freedom names.

Let the southern children climb atop them and the northern children play between their mighty hooves.
