

why not the cavalry

on Calvary . . .

as the song so goes,

for My Son

could have called

10,000 angels, although

in reality just

one could have

verily turned the tide;

like where was

gabriel on

that desultory

late afternoon . . .

sunless, about

to be Sonless.

then again

as the song so goes

further along

but He died alone,

for you . . . and me

although I'd've

rather'd some other

Way; save when I

signed on

to be

His Mom

I did say
according to Thy Will,
and He so echoed . . .

Thy Will be done.
