why not the cavalry

on Calvary . . .

as the song so goes, for My Son could have called 10,000 angels, although in reality just one could have verily turned the tide;

like where was gabriel on that desultory late afternoon . . .

sunless, about to be Sonless.

then again as the song so goes further along

but He died alone, for you . . . and me

although I'd've rather'd some other Way; save when I signed on to be His Mom

I did say according to Thy Will, and He so echoed . . .

Thy Will be done.
