If birds dart across
the pond, one
after the other. If the pond were still.

If I were quick enough
w/ a pic. If I zoom in

on two birds hovering above the pond. If I count two birds

plus the two doubled
in the mirror of pond. If in this pic

the four of us darted across the sky. If say
the slightest wind.

If the pond were not still. If even a bit of rain would shatter

the mirror. If it's just you & me, sister,
from here on out.
